History

Childhood

Andrew, eldest of the five children of Oliver Milliner and his wife after a few days shy of their first anniversary. Andrew father was a cold distant man who was aggressive towards his children constantly believing that they could be better if they so proved themselves in their youth often pushing his children to the limit. Yet Andrew was his favorite of his children. Oliver constantly pushed Andrew to his limit to be his successor within the family mafia and would often rough him up when he didn't do as he was told. There was little to no items of comfort allowed for Andrew leaving him to rely on his father's praise and the ideal young man his father wished for him to be.

Teenage Years

After he was labeled to be his father's heir to the mafia during his fifteenth birthday was the time when Oliver finally loosening a grip on his son expecting him to obey in order of the family. While being a well-learned student and an intelligent young man tba
