A small goth creature of the night, Canvas wears bondage gear and military aesthetics hand in hand. They have a rose tattoo across their neck and collarbones, and speak with a southern lilt.

History

History

Born as the seventh son of seven sons during the Great Depression, Canvas was never meant for anything great. After supporting their mom through hospital bills by getting into local New Orleans sex work, a jealous boyfriend murdered them on Valentine's Day. This was when Canvas was found by the Widows and turned into a fiendish horror. After slaughtering the rest of its family, the Priest of the Widows took Canvas on as a protege in the Path of Cathari and introduced Enlightenment in Montréal. Now, Canvas romps through the world sowing chaos and disorder wherever it goes. By establishing a chain of Studio Flaneur's, it feeds off of the tattoo and party scene while instigating freaky ritae.
