Eva Milliner

Overview

Overview

Eva is the eldest daughter of the Milliner family and a well forgotten member by her father's own accords. Having always found a disinterest within Eva since her birth was she taught the minimum and quickly sent away to follow her own ambitions while toiling away with surface level work her father saw as beneath him.

Eva has always had her own passion and drive to pursue modeling while secretly feigning for her father's affections in a desperate attempt to connect with him and to prove her value to her family.

History

History

Eva is the youngest daughter of Andrew Milliner's first wife as well as his first born daughter. Having grown up in a large family she was rather isolated and often a forgotten child. Having been reluctantly been taught about the family business and sent to help aid in petty affairs that her father wished not to uphold during her teen years did she aspire to be more; thus the family let her pursue her dreams in becoming a model by purchasing a modeling coach and aiding in the jumpstart of her modeling career. Ever since her career hit off has she been traveling across the world making rather the name for herself while representing her father for Giovanni meetups.

In recent events has she returned back home after her modeling contract with Vogue UK ended. Had she returned to seek her father and her family to reconnect with them once again.
