History

History

Life was never easy but Kamille was quite fortunate to be born to a family with quite the deal of wealth compared to many of her peers. Her mother was a singer and her father was a producer for a few big case talents. Her entire world was music- her mother taught her to sing, her father to dance, her church put her at the head of the choir. Eventually, she started her own career in the local music scene of Chicago. She was in her late 20s when she heard the most beautiful voice there ever was. The woman song her sweet songs and promised her something truly divine. Kamille fell in love for the first time in her life. It would be the last love of her human life as eventually the woman turned her.

The song would never end from there.

Her first love was taken from her far too early but she had set her on a path to the Setites. Kamille fled Chicago to Baltimore in the early 2000s and has devoted herself to the Cult ever since. She acts as a recruiter, a siren, lulling her herd into her arms. After all, she falls in love a new every night.
