

Kevin Belmont

Overview

Overview

Belmont was embraced Brujah in Richmond, VA during the clusterfuck that was 1999. After dropping on and off the radar for years, he's drifted back home to try reassembling himself on familiar ground.

Not public in-character is the fact that he's actually a Sabbat infiltrator sent to scout out the city.

(Apologies for the cartoon art style - I don't have any realistic images or a real-world faceclaim for him yet. Dollmaker source link here for artist credit.)

History

History

- Baltimore college student working towards a degree in library sciences during the 1999 Sabbat war; got unlucky and was grabbed as an under-the-table Camarilla group embrace target while visiting relatives in Richmond, Virginia. He was left behind with a handful of other brand new Brujah and Nosferatu childer to slow down the Sabbat while the important Kindred evacuated farther north.
- He held his own well enough that one of the warpacks decided to bring him along, indoctrinating him into their beliefs and eventually granting him Creation Rites. It didn't take him long to realize the mess he was in, but with no real alternative, he accepted and even came to enjoy unlife for a few years.
- Over time, he became disillusioned, but still - he had no real alternative. Turned to substance abuse, primarily alcoholic blood. Began circulating between packs to collect and consolidate spiritual teachings/Noddist texts as a hobby; never accomplished anything groundbreaking, but it kept him entertained.
- Recently voluntold to return to Baltimore as an infiltrator/scout since he was originally a local, and it was that or take a promotion to Pack Priest - a responsibility he did not want.
