Layla

Overview

Overview

Sarah Roth was once a sharp and cunning protégé of the enigmatic Mr. Hood, who raised her within the oppressive confines of his orphanage. She thrived in the shadows, mastering manipulation and survival under his tutelage. However, her world collapsed when Cindy's rebellion freed Thomas Williams and dismantled the Baltimore Orphanage. Abandoned by Mr. Hood and stripped of her purpose and sustenance, Sarah wandered lost and directionless, a shadow of her former self.

Her story took a darker turn when, in her quest for revenge given unlife. In this new monstrous form, she lost all personal memories of her past lives, retaining only haunted echoes of emotions. Now as a Gargoyle, she is beset a distant whisper, driving her with a sense of loss and vengeance she cannot fully understand, unsure if she wants

History

History

Sarah Roth was a ghoul of Mr. Hood and served as the headmistress of his orphanage. She was kind and caring to the children under her care but could be harsh and brutal toward any students of Mr. Hood, enforcing his strict and often cruel regimen. When Thomas Williams, the first child adopted by Mr. Hood, broke free of his brainwashing and left, Sarah was abandoned to manage the orphanage alone. With no support and the children taken away due to Mr. Hood's actions, investigations were scheduled, leaving Sarah overwhelmed and filled with rage at her situation.

In her fury and despair, Sarah was discovered by Pain of Set, a powerful vampire who saw potential in her turmoil. He took her and subjected her to a torturous embrace, transforming her into a Gargoyle. Stripped of her personal memories, she retained only haunted echoes of emotions from her past lives. Now, as a Gargoyle taking the name Layla, she is a being of sorrow and fury, driven by a sense of loss and vengeance she cannot fully comprehend, her past a distant whisper that fuels her rage and confusion.
