Tall, dark hair, and glittering green eyes outlines Roman. He isn't the most handsome man, with acne scars and rugged features, but he gets by with a quick with and a sly smile.

History

History

Born during the collapse of the Soviet Union in Czechoslovakia, Roman's life was turbulent as he grew up in the slums of Prague. As a high school dropout, low level drug dealer, he got caught and sent to Pankrác where he was sure to rot for years.
In Pankrác, Roman flourished. He was known as a fixer who could get you anything behind bars, and his first kill was messy and bloody. He was due to get out, but it was not to be.
Instead, an ancient viking vampire named Erik the Red embraced him during a prison riot. Erik saw potential in Roman and wanted him to have a traditional Gangrel Embrace, leaving him in a dazed frenzy during the riot. His first feeding was another vampire, tasting the broodmate's vitae all the way down. Savouring the power, Roman was just getting started.
Roman was quickly made aware of the Sabbat, where, instead of crashing and burning he rose to prominence as an assassin and bodyguard. Becoming a Knight/Paladin was his dream, and he worked for a decade or two a

Joining the Black Hand as a recruit was the best decision Roman's ever made, as he follows the guidance of old Kamuts in the way of the killer. These nights, Roman can be found taking out high profile targets while hunting for a variety of different types of blood. He's always wanted to see what a faerie tasted like.
