Tyler's a college kid, pretty close to getting his bachelors in computer science. He's not really sure what he's going to do with his life, but he stuck it out with school because it seemed like his only option. As his last semester draws nearer, he's becoming more and more reckless. Nearly nightly hookups with strangers, hanging out in dingy bars and seedy nightclubs for the thrill of it, and even dabbling in recreational drug use have been his "just another Tuesday night" for a few months, now...

History

History

Tyler grew up very wealthy, a trust-fund baby, and thoroughly spoilt, being allowed to do whatever he wanted, whenever he wanted. Going to college and "doing something with his brain" was his father's one stipulation to recieving his inheritance, and so Tyler is working on getting his BA in computer science though he genuinely has no idea what he's going to do with the degree since his inheritance is more than enough to live on for the rest of his life.
